Dig into Dinosaurs at the Witte's Afternoon Adventure

SAN ANTONIO—Join in a fun-filled family adventure at the Witte Museum's Afternoon Adventure, Digging into Dinosaurs. Journey back in time to when dinosaurs roamed the earth from 1-4 p.m. on Saturday, July 21, 2007.

Every member of the family can get hands-on fossils, hear the sounds dinosaurs made, create a unique dinosaur and learn about the latest dinosaur discoveries.

This Afternoon Adventure is held in conjunction with the Witte's current exhibition Return of the Dinosaurs: Extreme Makeover, where visitors can walk among a Stegosaurus, Triceratops or a baby T-Rex and get an up-close view of these Cretaceous creatures. There is a $2 surcharge for this exhibition.

Digging into Dinosaurs is free with museum admission. For more information call 210.357.1900 or visit www.wittemuseum.org.
