SAN ANTONIO--Commemorate the festive side of San Antonio in the late 1800s at the 37th Annual Witte Game Dinner, *Fandango Fantastico: Celebrating Historic San Antonio and South Texas. The Witte Museum Board of Trustees and Game Dinner Chairs Lou Celia and Don Frost invite you to one of San Antonio's most long-standing fundraising traditions from 6 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., Monday, October 15, 2007 on the grounds of the Witte Museum.

Since its inception 37 years ago when area sportsmen and hunters were asked to donate game to the museum for a barbeque and party, the annual Game Dinner has evolved into the Witte's largest and most successful fundraiser. Also named as one of the most efficient fundraising events in the city, the annual Game Dinner provides crucial funds to continue generating a legacy of knowledge for the next 80 years.

This fantastic evening along the San Antonio River includes delectable cuisine by the RK Group, a guaranteed good time with nine-time Grammy™ winning kings of Texas swing, Asleep at the Wheel and a wide array of silent and live auction packages including an Aoudad sheep hunt in West Texas courtesy of the H.E. Sproul Ranch; a beautifully designed diamond and white gold necklace courtesy of James Avery; a rooftop party for up to 80 at the Fairmount Hotel with entertainment by Ken Slavin courtesy of Dick Tips, the Fairmount Hotel and Ken Slavin; an original oil painting titled "Awakening" by world-renowned wild-life artist, Kobus Moller courtesy of Kobus Moller; a beach front villa in Puerto Vallarta overlooking the Pacific Ocean courtesy of Brusenhans' Sunshine Travel; a quail hunt on the Laureles division of the Historic King Ranch courtesy of Beck Ready Mix and Beck Landfill; and much more.

Individual tickets are available for $150. For more information or to purchase tickets call 210.357.1922, email gamedinner@wittemuseum.org or visit www.wittemuseum.org.
