Award-Winning Author to Speak at Witte Museum The Search for a Chili Queen 2 p.m., Sun., Aug. 2

SAN ANTONIO— The time is the 1880s, the place is San Antonio and the search is for a chili queen. Join award-winning author Marian Martinello for The Search for a Chili Queen at 2 p.m., Sunday, August 2.

Martinello will reconstruct her detective work by explaining the questions she asked, the sources she consulted and the clues she uncovered in 19th century photographs, artifacts and other primary sources. Enjoy a short reading of a selected episode that demonstrates how the search informed the story.

Marian Martinello has taught throughout New York, California, Florida and finally Texas, where she joined the faculty of the University of Texas at San Antonio. Her publications include studies of inquiry learning, interdisciplinary curriculum and teaching, as well as award-winning books on the history and cultures of Texas.

The Search for a Chili Queen is included with museum general admission. Space is limited, call 210.357.1910 for reservations. For more information call 210.357.1900 or visit www.wittemuseum.org.
