Collection Description

Collection #: 0006

Collection Title: Charles Ganahl Walker Jr. Family Papers

Creator: Walker, Charles 'Ganahl' Jr.--1918-1996

Location: Peggy Walker Archives

Inclusive Dates: 1862-2012

Bulk Dates: 1958-2012

Extent:

Restrictions:

Assoc Coll Matl:

Hist/Bio Note: The Charles Ganahl Walker, Jr. Family Papers primarily represents genealogical research on the Ganahl, Walker, and Steves families from immigration to the United States in the nineteenth century through the accomplishments and successes, both personal and professional, into the twentieth century. These families were political and cultural leaders in Kerr County and San Antonio.

Scope: The materials in this collection range from 1862–2012, with the majority of the materials produced between 1958 and 2012. The collection consists of mostly paper-based materials composed of newspaper and magazine clippings, and correspondence, historical pamphlets, unpublished historical books, historical and genealogical research. General topics covered are genealogy and history of the Steves, Ganahl, and Walker families.

Notes:

Topic:

Geographic: San Antonio (Tex.) --Comfort (Tex.) --Center Point (Tex.)

Personal: Walker Family --Steves Family --Ganahl Family

Corporate: Ed. Steves & Sons Lumber --Builders Supply Co.

Arrangement: Because The Charles Ganahl Walker Jr. Family Papers was created by multiple family members over several decades the collection came to the Witte well organized. Due to individual genealogical researchers actively gathering and organizing said research and that archival theory dictates that archivists maintain respect des fonds, original order of the family's research will be maintained. __Series 001 - Personal and Genealogical Information
